Charlotte Area's First Covered Bridge Unveiled at Millbridge Community in Waxhaw

Millbridge community one of many components of an area destined to become the next frontier for residential growth and development in the Charlotte area.

WAXHAW, N.C., March 15, 2007 – Millbridge, a master-planned community being developed by GS Carolina in Waxhaw, N.C., hosted a ribbon cutting ceremony to unveil the development's signature covered bridge.

GS Carolina of Charlotte joined with Waxhaw-area dignitaries to present development plans for the Millbridge community, along with visions for future growth in the Waxhaw area.

"This bridge at the main entrance of the community represents a gateway, not only to new life-style opportunities in the Charlotte area, but also to the celebrated traditions and history of the Town of Waxhaw," said Tom Scott, principal/partner of GS Carolina.

Millbridge will offer new home styles from the $300s to over $1 Million from homebuilders Mattamy Homes, Ryland Homes, The Cunnane Group, Shea Homes and Bonterra Builders.

The community will provide residents with state-of-the-art amenities including a 9000 sq. ft. clubhouse with a fitness center and a movie theatre room, Jr. Olympic pool, playgrounds, walking trails and greenway trails.

"We see Millbridge as one of many features of a well-planned and very promising future for this area. We feel Waxhaw and the surrounding area is destined to become the next frontier to growth in the Charlotte region," said Scott.
